

Zig And Zag

designed by Linda Lum DeBono

Pillow Size: 13 1/4" x 27 1/2"

Materials for pillow:

1/4 yard red for the piecing
1/4 yard white for piecing
1/2 yard of print for the pillow back
13 1/4" x 27 1/2" piece of batting
Polyester fiberfill

Cutting:

From the red print, cut:
3 x 2" x 42" strips

From the white print, cut:
3 x 2" x 42" strips

From the blue poinsettia print, cut:
2 rectangles, 5 1/2"x13 1/4"

From the pillow back print, cut:
1 rectangle 13 1/4" x 27 1/2"

Directions:

Sew on red strip to one white strip and press seams toward the red strip.

Repeat for the two other strips.

Use the triangle template and line up along the long edge of the pieced strip.

Start cutting one triangle and then flip the template so that the base of the triangle is lined up with the other side of the strip. Cut out the next triangle.

Flip the template back to the other side and repeat.

This should yield the following for each paired strip:

5 of these shapes

5 of these shapes

Sew the triangles together and make 18 sets total.

Join the squares to form rows as shown.
Sew all of the rows together to form pieced center.

Sew poinsettia print rectangles on each side of the pieced center.

Layer with batting and quilt.

With right sides together, sew the pillow front to the pillow back. Leave a 3" opening for turning.
Clip corners and turn right side out.
Fill with polyester fiberfill and stitch the opening closed.

Placemat Size: 13" x 17 1/4"

Materials for the placemat.

1/4 yard gray print for piecing
1/4 yard white print for piecing
Fat quarter for the backing
1/4 yard red print for binding
Batting

Directions

Cutting and piecing for the chevron pieces are the same as for the pillow.

Layer the from the top as follows: pieced top right side up, batting, and backing with wrong side up. Pin and quilt.

Bind with the red strips. Enjoy!

P.s. You can use right-angled triangle rulers instead of the template.
